Purpose of measures to prevent second-hand smoke

In Japan, it is said that about 15,000 people are estimated to die every year from second-hand smoke, and it has been found that second-hand smoke is associated with various diseases such as lung cancer and ischemic heart disease.

For the purpose of preventing the adverse health effects of second-hand smoke by facilitating the establishment of an environment where second-hand smoke can be avoided at the intention of the individual, the State and the Tokyo Metropolitan Government are carrying out measures by establishing laws and ordinances.

Main details of regulations

From April 1, 2020, in line with the full enforcement of the revised Health Promotion Act and the Tokyo Metropolitan Ordinance to Prevent Exposure to Second-Hand Smoke, indoor smoking will be prohibited in all facilities as a general rule, and smoking will only be allowed in smoking rooms that comply with criteria.

Be sure to smoke in designated places.

- ○If you smoke outside of a designated place, you may be subject to an administrative fine etc., according to laws and ordinances.
- Outdoor smoking rules may be independently determined by municipalities. For details please confirm with the municipalities of the location.

Even in places where you are allowed to smoke, please be considerate to prevent second-hand smoke from happening to people around you when you smoke.
